

Self Catering

The houses that we offer for self-catering are geared towards workmen who are looking for clean, non-smoking, economical lodgings. They are not situated at the Ardenwood Bed and Breakfast site, but rather are located throughout Aylesbury on various residential estates. All have parking and are near bus stops (with buses going into town every 10 minutes) and are located approximately 1 mile from the town centre.

The houses are cleaned daily by our housekeeping team and fresh towels and bedding are provided. The houses sleep between 5-6 people and all rooms have single beds, which can be pushed together for couples. Each guest has a key to the front door and to their bedroom. The kitchen, bathroom and living room are shared. The kitchen is fully equipped for guests to cook in. Some of the houses also have free internet access.

On weekends, the self catering houses are an economical alternative for families wanting basic accommodation (a whole house to themselves), with a view to independent accommodation in Aylesbury.
